

Redefining Insurance Through Sustainability

The Aldagi Perspective

Global & National Context

-  Georgia: Paris Agreement signatory
-  35% GHG reduction target by 2030
-  Part of UN Agenda 2030 for Sustainable Development

Industry focus

-  Georgia Capital to integrate ESG principles into its investment policies
-  Georgia Capital signed UN Global Compact in 2022
-  In 2023 Aldagi joined the platform
-  Received UN global compact award for sustainable innovation

Aldagi's ESG Strategy

Aldagi launched first 5-year ESG strategy in 2023

Backed by external ESG consultancy

Defined targets, KPIs, and action plan

ESG Strategy Focus

-  Climate risk mitigation
-  Employee wellbeing
-  Customer oriented approaches

Environmental Practices

-  Reducing climate risks through awareness campaigns on disaster preparedness
-  Promoting Climate smart agriculture
-  EV-specialized insurance coverage
-  Fully digital insurance using AI & blockchain

Social Impact

Establishing inclusive working environment

Women empowerment – 60% female workforce, 50% women in leadership

Paid leave for volunteering

Internships & training through Aldagi Academy

Support for MSMEs and social enterprises

Customer oriented approaches through ethical business communication

Governance ■■■ & Transparency

■ Annual ESG progress reporting in the framework of UN Global Compact

■ Strong ESG oversight by Georgia Capital

■ Cross functional ESG teams established

■ Sustainable corporate purchasing practices

Looking Ahead ■ ■ ■

Green product innovation

Partnerships for climate-smart insurance

Focus on resilience, inclusion, and transparency

Driving sustainable growth in Georgia and beyond